General Job Description

Job requirement:

- 1-2 years of Python experience
- Strong problem solver
- Ability to work with a team to resolve issues in a fast-paced environment
- Working in an English speaking environment

Desired qualities:
- Experience with version control, open source practices, and code review
- Strong communication skills
- Initiative and willingness to take responsibility, be flexible, and maintain a positive attitude

General Job description:
- You'll work on our airline integration architecture with our airline partners all across the world. Example integrations include direct integration with the airline's API, hardcoding, and web-data collecting.
- Specific project areas include improving infrastructure, automating common tasks, and improving our understanding of the data.
- Troubleshoot data used by our program obtained via web data scraping and/or API.
- Create and maintain up to date work plans and system documentation.
- Using Python in a production environment
- Working as part of a remote team

Bands

Title: Junior Content Engineer
- Experience:
  - 0-2 years of industry experience
- Abilities:
  - Strong communication + problem solving skills
  - Innate desire to contribute and learn

Title: Lead Content Engineer
- Experience:
  - Demonstrated ability to lead a team
  - Completed at least 1 direct airline integration
  - Excellent and thoughtful code reviews
  - Created and maintained up to date work plans and system documentation
  - Exceptionally strong understanding of the code
  - Contribution the architectural design of the system
- Added responsibilities:
  - Weekly lead meetings with other content leads
  - Manage and oversee a team of 2-3 junior content engineers
  - Coordinate collection needs in conjunction with company and partner stakeholders
  - More high level projects (e.g. creating an airline integration template, innovating an automation tool, implementing a payment system in the flow, etc.)
  - Field questions from core team (functional, architectural, etc.)

Title: Lead Architect Engineer
- Experience:
  - Architect of the system
- Added responsibilities:
  - Lead efforts in analyzing product and defining system requirements with other team leads.
  - Advise on the design and implement features on content code.
  - Main consultant for content-related changes/architectural questions from the core team.